NOTE: An investment in the Trust does not represent an investment in, deposit or other liability of IISL, the underlying investment manager(s) through whom the Trust invests, or any other related body corporate within the Insignia Financial Group of Companies.

Neither IISL, nor any underlying investment managers through whom the Trust invests, nor any related body corporate within the Insignia Financial Group, guarantees the performance of the Trust or the return of capital or income. Your investment in the Trust is subject to investment risk. This could involve delays in repayment and loss of income on the principal invested.

How the MLC Cash Management Trust Class A works

The Trust is a registered managed investment scheme that is subject to the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act), its constitution and other applicable law. When you invest in the Trust, your money is pooled with that of other investors. We use this pool to buy investments and manage them on behalf of all investors in the Trust. The total value of the assets in the Trust (or class within the Trust) is divided into 'units'. When a unitholder invests in the Trust they acquire units. Your investment in the Trust is represented by the number of units you hold. We will keep a record of your unit holding. Each unit that a unitholder holds in the Trust gives a unitholder beneficial interest in the Trust as a whole, but not in any particular asset of the Trust. Holding units in the Trust does not give a unitholder the right to participate in the management or operation of the Trust.

The constitution of the Trust allows for multiple classes of units to be issued within the Trust. Where differential fees are negotiated with certain sophisticated investors, IISL may create a different class of units within the Trust to separately manage the differential pricing. Each unit issued in respect of a particular class of units, is of equal value. Every unit confers an equal interest in the Trust and identical rights are attached to all units in each particular class within the Trust.

The unit price applicable when acquiring units in the Trust (application price) or when withdrawing from the Trust (withdrawal price) is generally $1.00 per unit.

We value the units of the Trust on each business day, in accordance with the procedures of the constitution. The method for valuing the various assets and income comply with accounting standards applicable to managed investment schemes in Australia. Generally, you can increase or decrease your investment by acquiring or disposing of units. However, in certain circumstances (such as a freeze or suspension on withdrawals or the Trust becoming illiquid) you may not be able to withdraw your investment within the usual period on request.

The constitution of the Trust allows us to exercise discretions which may affect unit pricing. Our unit pricing discretion policy sets out, among other things, the principles we adhere to when exercising these discretions. This policy is available free of charge by contacting Investor Services on 1800 002 217.

Applications and withdrawals

The Trust is subject to the following minimums:

Initial investment	$100,000
Additional investment	No minimum
Withdrawal	No minimum
Investment account	$100,000
balance

How to invest and withdraw

Investment and withdrawal minimums do not apply for investments in the Trust via an IDPS or master trust. Indirect investors should refer to the IDPS offer document or the master trust PDS to check what investment and withdrawal minimums might apply.

You may invest in the Trust at any time by completing the application form accompanying this PDS. Additional investments can also be made by completing the application form (tick the 'additional investment box') or by providing your request in writing. Similarly, withdrawals from the Trust can be requested at any time by providing your instruction in writing.

All requests must be signed by the appropriate signatories (as registered unitholders in the Trust).

As part of withdrawal proceeds, unitholders will receive their share of any net income of the Trust for the period of time during which their units were on issue in the relevant distribution period. Unitholders will also receive their share of the capital value of the Trust on withdrawal.

Restrictions on withdrawals

We will not satisfy a withdrawal request if the Trust becomes illiquid (as defined under the Corporations Act). In certain circumstances we may suspend withdrawals.

Income distributions

Investing in the Trust means that you may receive income (such as interest, dividend and realised capital gains) in the form of income distributions or attributable income.

The type of income you receive will depend on the underlying assets within the Trust.

Income attributed or distributed to you is generally assessable income and can be made up of both income and realised capital gains. Such income is generally calculated based on the Trust's net income at the end of the distribution period divided by the number of units on issue.

The Trust generally distributes income monthly and any income distributions are usually paid to unitholders within three business days after the end of the month. However, the constitution of the Trust provides for distributions to be paid within a period of 60 days from the last day of the distribution period (unless an audit is required, in which case income distributions may be made as soon as possible after completion of the audit). There may be times when income distributions may not be made, are lower than expected or are delayed. We may also choose to distribute income or capital at any other time.

You will be sent a statement detailing your income distributions or attributable income.

You should read the important information about 'Investing and withdrawing' before making a decision. Go to the Reference Guide available at ioof.com.au/forms

3. Benefits of investing in the MLC Cash Management Trust Class A

The Trust is a managed portfolio of high quality cash and short-term money market securities that aims to provide:

· a low risk and stable investment

- a regular income stream over the short to medium term, and
- ready access to your funds.

Significant benefits

Professional management

Our investment professionals manage the Trust using a disciplined investment approach aimed at delivering a regular income stream and competitive returns.

Relatively stable investment

The Trust provides a strong capacity to maintain principal stability and to limit exposure to principal losses due to credit, market or liquidity risks, making it an ideal investment to complement a diversified investment portfolio.

Liquidity

The underlying investments are liquid so you can redeem your investment at any point in time.

4. Risks of managed investment schemes

Risks of investing

Before you invest, there are some things you need to consider, including how much risk you're prepared to accept.

All investments carry risk. Different investment strategies carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets that make up the investment strategy.

The value of an investment with a higher level of risk will tend to rise and fall more often and by greater amounts than investments with lower levels of risk, ie it's more volatile.

While it may seem confronting, investment risk is a normal part of investing. Without it you may not get the returns you need to reach your investment goals. This is known as the risk/return trade-off.

When choosing your investment, it's important to understand that:

- the value of your investment will go up and down
- investments with higher long-term return potential usually have higher levels of short-term risk
- returns aren't guaranteed and you may lose money
- future returns will differ from past returns, and
- the appropriate level of risk for you will depend on your age, investment time frame, where other parts of your wealth are invested and what your risk tolerance is.

Significant risks

The significant risks of the Trust include:

Cash and fixed income risk

Risks that can affect cash and fixed income markets as a whole include interest rates and inflation, credit risk and changes in investor sentiment. Other risks include economic, legislative, regulatory, political, environmental and technological changes. These risks can cause the market price of the Trust's investments – and the income generated by them – to go down, or up.

Credit risk

The issuer (or guarantor) of a cash or fixed income security may default on or delay principal repayments, interest payments or be otherwise unable to honour its obligations. Credit risk could negatively affect the market price of the Trust's investments and the income generated by them. Issuers considered 'investment grade' have a lower credit risk compared to sub-investment grade 'high yield' issuers (with higher credit risk).

Derivatives risk

A derivative is a financial contract where value is derived from another source such as an asset, index or interest rate ('Underlying Asset'). Types of derivatives include warrants, options, futures and swaps. They are a common tool used to manage risk (hedging), efficiently manage a portfolio or generate returns. The Trust does not use derivatives for gearing purposes. Risks associated with derivatives include the risk that the value of a derivative may not move in line with the Underlying Asset, that the counterparty to a derivative contract may not meet payment obligations and that, in times of market stress, derivatives may be difficult or costly to trade or unwind.

Interest rate risk

The value of the Trust's investments may be sensitive to interest rate changes. Fixed income investment values tend to move in opposite directions to interest rates. For example, bond values will typically fall with a rise in interest rates.

Investment specific risk

Internal risks that can affect a specific company include changes to management, profit and loss announcements, legal action and investor sentiment. External market risks may impact a particular company (or industry) more than the wider investment market. These risks can affect the market price and income of a company's shares, as well as its debt securities. Within the Trust, investment specific risk is reduced to the extent that the Trust provides diversified exposure to a variety of investments.

Legal and regulatory risk

The laws and regulatory environment affecting registered managed investment schemes may change in the future and this may negatively impact the Trust.

Liquidity risk

An asset is illiquid if it cannot easily be sold at or near the previous market price in a timely manner. This may be due to difficult market conditions (eg a shortage of buyers), or due to the absence of an established market. Assets which are normally liquid may become illiquid in difficult market conditions and this may increase the amount of time it takes us to satisfy a withdrawal request.

Trust risk

Investing via a Trust (managed investment scheme) may give different results compared to investing directly because of tax laws, income and capital gains accrued in the Trust, the consequences of investments and withdrawals by other investors, and the deduction of management fees and costs. Other risks are that the level of fees and costs may increase, or that the Trust may be terminated.

Investment performance risk

No single investment style or strategy consistently outperforms across all market conditions. Consequently, the Trust may underperform relative to other investment trusts. Additionally, the investment manager may not achieve the Trust's investment objective due to changes in the investment team, market conditions, or other factors that may affect their performance.

Derivatives

Derivatives are generally used as a tool to assist investment managers in controlling the various risks associated with investing. The Trust may use a range of derivative instruments for hedging purposes and for more efficient and cost effective implementation of investment strategies. Derivatives will not be used to gear the Trust's portfolio.

Changes to the Trust

6. Fees and costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. You may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) MoneySmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a managed funds fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

This section shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the Trust as a whole.

Taxes are set out in another part of this document.

You should read all of the information about fees and costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment. You can also use this information to compare the fees and costs with those of other managed investment schemes.

These fees are inclusive of the goods and services tax (GST) and take into account any expected reduced input tax credits (RITC). Where fees have been quoted to two decimal places, the actual fee may have been rounded.

Additional explanation of fees and costs

Management fees and costs

Management fees and costs are made up of the management fee and indirect costs described below.

Management fee

The estimated management fee consists of underlying investment manager fees and the fee charged by the Responsible Entity for managing the assets of the Trust and overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Trust. The amount of the management fee may be negotiated by wholesale clients. For further information, refer to 'Management fee' in the Reference Guide.

Indirect costs

Indirect costs are reflected in the daily unit price and any reporting on the performance of the Trust. Estimated indirect costs are based on actual costs incurred for the financial year to 30 June 2025 and/or reasonable estimates where information was unavailable at the date this document was issued. For further information, refer to 'Indirect costs' in the Reference Guide.

Transaction costs and buy-sell spread

There are currently no transaction costs (such as a buy-sell spread or brokerage) for the Trust.

Fee changes

We have the right to increase the management fees and costs or to charge fees not currently levied, in each case, up to the maximum limits set out in the constitution governing the Trust, without your consent. If we choose to exercise this right, we will provide you with at least 30 days prior written notice or otherwise notify you as the law requires.

At the date of this PDS, no contribution, withdrawal or switching fees apply. There are currently no performance fee arrangements in place with any of the underlying investment managers of the Trust.

7. How managed investment schemes are taxed

Investing in a registered managed investment scheme is likely to have tax consequences and you are strongly advised to seek your own professional tax advice. The information provided in this PDS is of a general nature only.

The taxation implications from an investment in the Trust can be complex and depend on a number of factors including whether you are a resident or non-resident of Australia for taxation purposes and whether you hold the units as a long-term investment or for short-term purposes.

The following is a brief summary of taxation information relating to Australian tax residents for income tax purposes:

- Managed investment schemes will generally attribute all their income to unitholders each year, so that the Trust itself is not subject to Australian income tax.
- The Trust does not pay tax on behalf of Australian resident unitholders. Instead, as a unitholder you will pay tax on the income and/or net capital gains that has been attributed to you.
- In normal circumstances, you may expect that some income (and/or capital gains) will be generated each year.

You should read the important information about 'How managed investment schemes are taxed' before making a decision. Go to the Reference Guide available at ioof.com.au/forms

The material relating to 'How managed investment schemes are taxed' may change between the time when you read this PDS and the day when you acquire the product.
